What Kind of Morgan Hill Do We Want?

Residents of Morgan Hill have made it very clear: we like where we live. And our city government wants to keep it that way. That means as a community we have to make important choices now that will continue to make an impact for many years to come.

However, the City is faced with the budget challenge that the local economy is not generating sufficient revenue to sustain current services on an ongoing basis. The City's costs, especially for employee benefits, have increased significantly.

Because the City has prudently built up financial reserves over the previous decade, Morgan Hill is in a position to carefully manage a response to this challenge without resorting to dramatic service level reductions or immediately increasing taxes. However, unless there are long-term structural changes to bring the budget into balance, the current level of spending on basic city services is not sustainable. Over the past three years, General Fund reserves have been used to balance the budget even after previous aggressive expenditure reductions. The ongoing annual deficit is approximately $1.5 million per year.

After nearly a decade of steadily building reserves, the following series of critical adverse factors have caused us to begin consuming reserves at an unsustainable rate: the lingering economic slowdown, substantial cost increases (especially for employee retirement), and changes in the City's revenue base. Based on currently foreseeable trends over the next five years, if no action is taken, the General Fund reserves will fall below the City's reasonable 25% reserve target level to a level of 19% by June 2009.

The fiscal squeeze is real, and it must be addressed if the community's priorities for services and governance are to be met.

What kind of community services do we want and how should we pay for them? The City Council is launching a year-long "community conversation" to answer this question and we want your voice to be included.

Beginning early next year, city council members, city employees and a number of Morgan Hill residents will be coming to your neighborhood, your school, your business group or your service club to lead a series of structured conversations about the budget choices we face. What kind of services should our city provide? How should we pay for them? What kind of role will residents play in city government in years to come? Only you can provide answers to these questions, and your input is essential as the city council makes decisions that affect us all.

If you would like more information about how you or your organization can be a part of this community conversation, please contact us at citytalk@morganhill.ca.gov or at 779-7271.

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Proposal Process Begins

The City's annual Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) allocation process will begin in December 2005 with a public service announcement appearing in the Morgan Hill Times. The deadline for submitting Project Applications from non-profit agencies for Fiscal Year 2005-2006 is Friday, February 10, 2006.

Eligible projects must: Benefit low or very low income persons; help eliminate slum or blight; or meet an urgent community need such as a threat to community health or welfare for which no other funds are available. Programs that have received funding in the past include: Domestic Violence Shelters, Senior Services, Youth Services and Transitional/Emergency Shelter Services.

The City of Morgan Hill has participated in the CDBG program since 1977 through the Urban County Program and anticipates receiving approximately $35,000 for public service activities and $131,000 for non-public service projects which can be used for capital projects such as park improvements. For more information or to request an application, contact the Business Assistance and Housing Services Department at (408) 776-7373, e-mail www.bahs.bahs@morganhill.ca.gov or on our website at www.morganhill.ca.gov.

Streets and Parks News

Winter Storm Preparations

The Streets Division continues to prepare for the winter storm season. City Staff is working to remove vegetation and debris from city maintained drainage channels, storm inlets and culverts. In the project shown below, the Streets crew extended a storm drain line to repair and prevent further erosion from threatening a sewer line in the Jackson Oaks Open Space.

Sandbags

Part of the City's winter preparations is provision of sand and sandbags for residents use. Sandbag supplies are available near the Public Works yard at 100 Edes Court. Residents should bring their own shovels to fill up as many sandbags as they think they will need. The Santa Clara Valley Water District also provides sandbags for Morgan Hill residents at the El Toro Fire Station on Old Monterey Road.

Reseeding Galvan Park

The soccer field at Galvan Park has been fenced off for six weeks to protect the newly reseeded field. The field has received a lot of hard use and was in need of restoration. The City Parks crew filled in low spots as well as reseeded.

Reporting Street Light Outages

If you notice a street light not working properly, you can report the problem via the electronic form on the City's web site. To locate the form from the City's home page, www.morganhill.ca.gov, select Contact the City, go to City Inquiry/Feedback and then from the pull down menu, select Street Light Problems.

You can also call Public Works directly at 776-7337.

Modest Water Rate Increases to Stay on Track

Morgan Hill City Council Resolution 5766, adopted in February 2004, provided for annual water rate adjustments through the year 2007. A recent review by the City's Financial Policy Committee and by the City Council confirmed that these rate increases are necessary in order for the City to meet operating, capital improvement, debt service and perchlorate treatment costs. Effective January 1, 2006, water rates will increase by two percent (2%). The base charge for most residential customers will increase from $5.20 per month to $5.30 per month. The rate for each unit (748 gallons) for the first tier of water usage, for customers within City limits, will increase from $1.01 to $1.03, while the second tier will increase from $2.02 to $2.06 and the third tier will increase from $3.02 to $3.08. In addition, low income discounts will also increase by two percent to $3.19.

Water customers are currently billed a ten percent (10%) surcharge on total water fees each month. These funds are collected to help offset the cost for perchlorate treatment. The City is incurring perchlorate related costs in order to preserve the quality of our water supply. Effective January 1, 2006, the surcharge will increase to fifteen percent (15%) per month. This surcharge is applied to water charges only and is not applied to sewer or lift station charges.

A typical multi-family unit customer, using 6 units per month, will see a monthly billing increase from $12.39 to $13.21, while an average single family residential customer, using 19 units per month, will see a monthly billing increase from $36.83 to $39.27.

For more information regarding water and sewer rates, please contact our Utility Billing Department at (408) 779-7221.

Emergency Preparedness Tips

The news about the Gulf Coast has us thinking a lot about preparedness lately - theirs, and ours. Here are some tips from your Office of Emergency Services:

1 Have you assembled a grab 'n go kit? You have all the items at home and it won't cost you a thing. Put it together today and you'll sleep better tonight. Start with:

- * Something to help you breathe - A bandana or a dust mask will help filter debris in the air. This is priority #1. If you can't breathe, nothing else matters.

- * Water - We're supposed to store 1 gallon per person per day. It's simply impractical for most of us to store 7 gallons in our kit, but store a reasonable amount and consider purchasing a water filter and/or purification tablets.

- * Plastic bags - It gets very cold, wet & windy in the winter. A bag over your head (cut out a hole for your face) and a bag over your feet will help keep you warm and dry.

- * Mark your calendar and add more - Once a week, or once a month, add an item or two to your kit such as light sticks (even the spark from a battery in a flashlight can start a fire if there's a gas leak), comfortable walking shoes, a warm jacket, food, etc.

- * Put the kit in your car and outside your home if you park your car in your garage (in case your structure collapses), in your desk at work, your children's classrooms, lockers, daycares, etc.

2 Do you have a family/household plan? Does everyone know who to call, where to meet, how to evacuate, etc.? Make sure you have an out-of-state contact and everyone knows their name and number. Calls might work sporadically going out, but usually do not work coming in to the disaster area for several weeks.

3 When we have an earthquake, seasonal flood, wildfire, dam collapse, pipeline explosion, chemical spill, etc., do you know what to do? Spend some time reading the latest recommendations and then educate your family/household.

4 Do you know how to respond appropriately following a disaster? Statistics reveal that one rescuer dies for every person saved if the people offering help haven't had any training. Community Emergency Response Training teaches you how to safely help your loved ones and community in only 20 hours or less, offering classes in basic search and rescue, disaster medical care, fire suppression, etc. Classes are free and open to any one 11 years and up. People of all physical abilities are encouraged to attend.

City Recycling Program

With the introduction of our new recycling programs, many people have asked City staff some great questions. Here are some of the more frequent queries and answers.

How do I request additional recycling containers? In Morgan Hill, we like every resident to get just the right mix of recycling containers so we've arranged for a variety of sizes and shapes that allow residents to pick and choose the containers that fit their needs. These include small, open-topped 18-gallon bins, 32-gallon carts, and 64-gallon carts. Residents can get as many containers as they reasonably need without charge. Call South Valley Disposal and Recycling at 842-3358 to make your request.

What are the food scrap containers? After pilot projects using different containers, the City settled on simple plastic pitchers to use as food scrap containers. While not as "cool" as some of the containers designed specifically for food scrap collection, they have two major advantages. First, they are dishwasher safe and small enough to fit in most dishwashers. The other containers we tried were not so easy to wash. Second, they are low cost and we can give people two to use. With two containers, you can always have one available while the other is being washed.

How do I get my food scrap containers? You can come by City Hall between 8 am and 5 pm to pickup your containers, or call South Valley at 842-3358 and ask for a pair to be delivered.

Are you suggesting that I stop using my garbage disposal? Not really. We are suggesting that you should put all of your food wastes AND all of your food-soiled paper waste that you are currently throwing away in the trash into the yard trimmings carts. If you are happy placing the majority of your food waste in your garbage disposal, feel free to continue doing so.

What is food soiled paper? Napkins, paper plates, paper towels, and pizza boxes are some examples of food soiled paper. These items may now be placed in your yard trimmings cart instead of the garbage.

Can I still use my old green (or blue) bin for my paper? Absolutely- if it works for you and is big enough to fit all of your paper, keep using it.

Can we still set out additional cans of garbage? Yes, you may continue using your own 32-gallon cans or if you'd like an additional 48-gallon garbage cart, you may rent one from South Valley.

With the new garbage container that's been provided, I no longer want to continue renting one from South Valley. What should I do? Call South Valley and ask them to pickup your old can and remove the charge from your bill.

Expanded Fire Fees

As of September 26, the City of Morgan Hill implemented increased fire inspection and plan review fees that will allow the City to recover the full cost for inspections of commercial, industrial, day care facilities, and certain multi-family residential facilities carried out by County Fire and for issuance of County Fire permits. These services are carried out by County Fire on behalf of the City as part of the current contract for fire services. Fees for hazardous materials inspections and for fire sprinkler and fire alarm permits have been updated. New fees for annual inspections, re-inspections, self inspections, additional hazardous materials inspections, additional permit/plan reviews, and operational permits were also implemented. No fees will be charged for emergency response by fire staff.

For the first time, annual inspection fees are now being charged in Morgan Hill to every fixed place of business, whether commercial or industrial, to day care facilities, and to large multi-family residential alarmed facilities in the Morgan Hill City limits. The Morgan Hill annual inspection fee, which will be charged to about 937 commercial and industrial enterprises, will be $210.

In addition, the City implemented self-inspection fees, which will be charged to approximately 443 commercial and industrial enterprises, set at only $17 to reflect the lesser effort by County Fire staff for the processing of annual self-inspection documentation. In general, all businesses will have an actual physical inspection at least once every three years, and will pay the higher fee. The City also implemented re-inspection fees of $53 that will be charged each time that County Fire must revisit a business because the business is not prepared for the initial inspection.

City staff will bill customers for annual inspections, re-inspections, and self inspections. Other fees will be billed to customers by County Fire. A complete list of approved fees is available from the Finance Department.

The collection of these increased fees is consistent with the City Council's policy of full cost recovery. One of the principles in the City Council's Principles to Guide the Sustainable Budget Strategy is "Special services designed for only a few should be paid for by user charges and fees."

If you have any questions about these fees, please contact the City of Morgan Hill Finance Department at 779-7237.

Morgan Hill Turns 100

This New Year's Eve, glasses will be raised in toast to the hardy pioneers who finally agreed upon a name and officially incorporated Morgan Hill as a city in 1906.

That moment of salute kicks off a year of diverse festivities for Centennial Morgan Hill, a celebration of 100 years of change and progress.

The Centennial's volunteer planners have announced a preliminary calendar of events, and promised more to come as community organizations throughout the city incorporate the theme into their own grassroots celebrations.

The celebration's kick-off will be "Club 1906," a New Year's Eve Centennial First Night in the downtown area. The event will include dinner in local restaurants, games, dancing and conclude with breakfast at the Morgan Hill Community & Cultural Center.

The highlight event on August 5-6 will be "Centennial Days," a community picnic. Activities include vintage transportation rides between the Morgan Hill Community & Cultural Center and Villa Mira Monte, the house that city namesake Hiram Morgan Hill called home.

The actual day of the city's incorporation will be celebrated on November 10 with a reception at the Community Center.

Two permanent gifts to the city will be long-lasting memorials of the celebration.

The first will be the unveiling of the "Waiting for the Train" bronze sculpture during the Taste of Morgan Hill in September 2006. The bronze depicts the Hiram Morgan Hill family and will be installed at the train station. The sculpture has been commissioned by the Arts and Cultural Alliance of the Morgan Hill Community Foundation.

The second will be a historical timeline built into a trail at the Villa Mira Monte from the Community Centennial Project.

Many community organizations are planning or adapting their own events with Centennial themes. For example, the theme for the 2006 Morgan Hill July 4 Independence Day Parade and fireworks display will be "Celebrating Morgan Hill's Centennial - A Portrait of America."

As community groups move farther into their planning, their events will be added to the line-up on the Centennial's official website, www.mhcentennial.org

The website contains detailed information about each event, ticket information, official Centennial clothing, volunteer and sponsorship opportunities, and a means to provide ideas and feedback to the organizing committee.

The Centennial Morgan Hill Committee, appointed by the Morgan Hill City Council, is Jennifer Tate, President; Janie Knopf, Vice President; Marilyn Librers, Treasurer; Irma Torrez, Secretary; Brad Jones, Mayor Dennis Kennedy, Council Member Greg Sellers, Lorraine Welk and Ellie Weston.
